SUPPORTING WESTON BUSINESSES

In 2022, Ofgem closed a 20-year-old loophole that had enabled energy companies to add undisclosed broker commissions onto their commercial customers' bills, without their knowledge.

Weston BID have now teamed up with a group of legal specialists that help businesses recover these hidden broker commissions.

If you have ever used a broker to arrange your electricity or gas contract, it is very likely your business will qualify for a refund.

This is a NO WIN NO FEE service similar to the PPI claims and the consultants will do all the work for you. All you need to proceed are copies of the following.

- Letter of Authority (you giving the broker permission to act on your behalf)
- Contract
- One months bill (preferably an early one)

We are also delighted to say, that when a claim is successful, the consultants will donate a portion of their fee to Weston BID projects, resulting in a double benefit for businesses in the district.
